

I A.S. Hinkle of the County of Greenbrier State of West Virginia, do make and publish this as my last will and testament in manner and form as follows: to-wit:
 I give and bequeath to Dixie L. Byrd who is the daughter of my deceased wife Catharine R. Hinkle all of the property Real Personal or mixed that I may own hold or in any way be entitled to at the time of my death or thereafter or in other words make her the said Dixie L. Byrd my sole and only heir.
 This I do for reason of her care and kindness towards me during my past years of decline.

I the above named testator hereto subscribe my name in the presence of and at my request in the presence of one and other their names as witnesses, this the 21st day of January 1908.

Witness.

his
 A.S. X Hinkle
 mark

D.C. Riffe

I.F. Norton

Greenbrier County Court Clerk's Office April 12th 1918

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of A.S. Hinkle deceased was this day produced before Jno. S. Crawford, Clerk of Greenbrier County Court in his Office and proven in part by the deposition of I.F. Norton, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto and adjourned for further proof.

Teste: Jno. S. Crawford Clerk.

West Virginia, Greenbrier County Court Clerk's Office April 15th 1918

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of A.S. Hinkle deceased was again this day produced before Jno. S. Crawford, Clerk of Greenbrier County Court in his Office and it appearing that D.C. Riffe the other witness to said will has departed this life, and Henry Gilmer after first been duly sworn on his oath says he was well acquainted with the handwriting of the said D.C. Riffe and testifies that the signature of D.C. Riffe to said will is the genuine signature of said D.C. Riffe and he further testifies that the said D.C. Riffe was a competent witness, and further testifies that he was well acquainted with the testator A.S. Hinkle, and at the time of making said will the said testator was of sound mind and capable of making said will, and the said paper writing is ordered to be recorded as the last will and testament of A.S. Hinkle deceased.

Teste: Jno. S. Crawford Clerk.
